A COBRA RECORD.

H. Drummond Dowe, in the following letter to the Malaya Mail, seems to have struck the cobra record. He says:—On the morning of the 13th May last, just as we were sitting down to breakfast, the note came and said he had seen a large cobra go into a hole under an Ipomoea bush in the garden, not 20 yards from the house. We got the bush dug up, and after digging for about half an hour came across a young cobra a foot long, who raised its hood at once; another stroke of the pickaxe brought four or five to view, and in 20 minutes we killed no less than 20 of an average size of a foot in length. After some more digging a large cobra was unearthed, presumably the mother, and finally another small cobra, making a record of 22 cobras in half an hour. I was present the whole time and myself saw every one dug up and killed. I was curious to know if this was the usual size of a cobra family and wrote to a leading authority on the subject in Malaya for information. He told me that little was known of the domestic life of the cobra, but that he quite thought this was a record. I ought to add that three weeks previously we had killed a large cobra in the drawing room.

LATE TELEGRAMS.

Death of a Scotch M.P.

London, December 24.—The death is announced of Capt. Charles Lindsay Orr-Ewing, Member for Ayr Burghs. (Capt. Orr-Ewing was for the Ayr Burghs since 1895 in the Conservative interest. He held a commission in the 3rd Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders from 1859 to 1889. In 1893 he married Lady Augusta Boyle, the eldest daughter of the Earl of Glasgow, who is a Ceylon estate-owner. Capt. Orr-Ewing's majority in 1890 was 597 votes.)

Death of a Distinguished Army Medical Officer.

The death is announced of Surgeon Colonel Sir George Thomson, formerly of the Indian Medical Service. (Sir George Thomson, K.C.B., was sixty years old, and entered the Indian Medical Service in 1865, retiring in 1898. He served with the Chitral and Tinnah Expeditions. He was mentioned in despatches and decorated for his services in the Afghan war with such conspicuous success that he received the thanks of the Indian Government, besides other marks of honour.)

The French Naval Estimates.

London, December 25.—The French Senate has passed the Naval Estimates, restoring in full the votes for the fortification of the bases at Diego Suarez in Tonkin, which the Committee had reduced. (Diego Suarez is in Madagascar. Probably and Tonkin is meant.)

The British Mission to Tibet.

Calcutta, December 25.—A press communication regarding the Tibet Mission has been issued, and states that General McMahon, with the advanced party of the Mission and escort, has reached Phari after having reconnoitred the Tunga Pass, over the main chain of the Himalayas.

There was no opposition at any stage. The inhabitants of the Chumbi Valley brought in supplies and sold 100 mules to the Mission. They are also arranging for the carriage of the Mission's supplies on the contract system between Chumbi, where Colonel Younghusband has halted at present until supplies can be sent on, and the head of the mule road on the Ranpo River in Sikkim.

Colonel Younghusband has been visited at Chumbi by the Phari Jongpa, or district officer, who stated that no resistance would be offered to the Mission, and that supplies would be furnished.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Notwithstanding that the mine-owners of LANCOR FOR SOUTH AFRICA have produced conclusive proof that it will be necessary for them to import some kind of Asiatic labour into the country if they are to work their holdings at a profit, and that the Legislative Council of the Transvaal, at the instance of Sir George Farrar, passed a motion in support of the introduction of Chinese, Home papers still rail bitterly against the proposal. It would appear from this constant screaming that the men who live furthest away from the country, and who know least about it, are the strongest in their condemnation of the proposition put forward by those on the spot as a solution of the great problem confronting all mining enterprises there. And it is significant that whilst heaping vituperation upon the heads of Asiatic labour advocates the writers seated snugly in their offices in London never put forward one suggestion to overcome the difficulty in another way. Native labour is scarce in South Africa without a doubt, and recent advances show that what there is of it is lazy and requires constant supervision before any good can be got out of it. In Rhodesia, the scarcity is said to be particularly acute owing to the fact that the majority of the natives of that territory have been attracted south by the mines and farms of the Witwatersrand, and it is reported that unless something is done to alleviate the distress, many of the mines will have to be closed down. To work the mines either in Rhodesia or the Transvaal with white labour would be out of the question as the wages that would be demanded would be from 10s to 12s a day even for unskilled labour, and that would be much more than each man could produce. In addition to that the cost of carriage of the product over the lines is exorbitant, and that is an expense that has to be met before any return at all can be secured. High wages and high freights and profits of any description are not synonymous, and if the people of the gold-producing colonies persist and are successful in their efforts to keep the yellow man out, they will lose, rather than gain in prosperity, for it will at once mean the crippling of big enterprises and the stagnation of many others dependent upon them. The strangest thing about the opposition raised against the importation of cheap labour is that whereas nothing much is said about 'the poor white working man'—a cry that rings through Australia when any competition from outside is suggested—a great deal is made out of the allegation that once the Chinaman is allowed to enter the country, there will be no getting him out of it. Arguments of that character are simply nonsense, for it is in the hands of legislators to see that no Chinaman is allowed to stay in the country above a certain period. Legislation could be passed to safeguard the country against such a contingency. Coolies could be introduced under indenture to serve a prescribed number of years and then be returned to their own country, and whilst the law was enforced in that direction there would never be any danger of their overrunning the country or even spreading beyond the compounds of the mines employing them. Coolies could profitably do developmental work that it would be a dead loss to give to white men, and by doing that work cheaply they would so open the way to increased wealth that all would participate in it. Nothing definite is so far known about the supply of labour from China, but Mr F. Perry, Chairman of the Witwatersrand Native Labour Association, is at present in Hongkong making investigations, and after he returns from the North, whether he sails shortly, he will be able to say what is the outlook for constant supplies.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

A German Consul Dies.
A Chinavia telegram, dated Jan. 8, to the N.C. Daily News, says:—The German Consul, Dr. Lange, died here suddenly this afternoon of heart failure, after suffering from gout for a fortnight. He leaves a widow and one daughter.

Hongkong Garrison.
The C. P. R. steamer Empress of India, due here next week, has on board the 83rd Company, Royal Garrison Artillery, for Hongkong, where it relieves the 89th Company. The 83rd Company comes from Vancouver. There is a rumour that the 8th Company will be retained here until the northern crisis is ended, but it is more likely that this Company will leave for Rangoon and Calcutta on the Dhruva, which is carrying out a troopship voyage.

The German Colonies.
The German Government proposes to lay before the Reichstag shortly a Bill for the establishment of Legislative Councils, on the English Colonial model, in each of the German Colonies. It is provided in the Bill that Colonial Governors shall appoint the civil members of these so-called Assistant Councils, but are not bound to adopt their decisions. The proposed measure meets with a good deal of opposition. German South-West Africa already has a Legislative Council, consisting of freely-elected members, which is said to be working satisfactorily.

British Shipping Interests.
At the annual dinner of the Liverpool Shipbrokers' Benevolent Society Lord Inglethorpe, in responding to the toast of shipping interests, stated that our shipping laws were out of date. The time had come when the question of the navigation and shipping laws of this country must be faced and reconsidered. Foreign ships that came to our ports ought to be put in exactly the same position as British vessels. They did not ask for any position of advantage over their foreign rivals, but they desired to be able to compete with them on equal terms in the home ports.

COD SAVE THE KING.

Reciprocity.
The following indicates how Mr Chamberlain's proposals are arousing business men outside Great Britain:—A paper in favour of Reciprocity between the United States and Canada, by Mr John Charlton, a member of the Canadian House of Commons, and Joint High Commissioner on Trade Relations in 1897, was read before the Chamber of Commerce at Boston on the 10th December. The British Prefatorial tradeist would, the writer asserted, create new conditions, and Canada would have to choose between Preferential Trade and Reciprocity. It was time that the United States should in its own interests manifest a spirit of fairness and generosity towards Canada.

Hongkong and the Fiscal Policy.
A writer in the Daily Press this morning says, in effect, Hongkong should not support Mr Chamberlain's fiscal policy because the application of that statesman's proposals would involve the taxation of the Colony's food supply, and the taxation of the raw materials used in the manufacture of sugar locally. This is a striking example of narrow-mindedness. It does not follow that Hongkong will have to tax its food supplies; but in any case, whatever taxes are imposed in Great Britain and the great self-governing Colonies it is far from likely that any violent changes will be attempted in the Crown Colonies. We take it that each Colony's special position will be considered. Only an novice in political economy could imagine a rigid system of tariffs for the whole of an Empire, with its varying interests and differing conditions of life.

Yuan's Majesty. said the Grand Vizier, 'is it proper to say the Balkans, or the Balkans are?' 'I say,' thundered the Sultan, 'the Balkans be—' But his further remarks of course, were unfit for publication.

'Have you ever shed real tears while acting?' asked the inquisitive girl. 'No,' answered Mr Stormington Barnes. 'I have felt like it sometimes, but I make it a rule never to let my box-office cares intrude on my art.'

Imaginary Ailments.
THERE are many who have pains in the back and imagine that their kidneys are affected, while the only trouble is rheumatism of the muscles, or, at worst, lumbago, that can be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, or by damping a piece of flannel with Eucalypti and binding it on over the affected parts. For sale by all chemists and medicine vendors; WATKINS Ltd., General Agents.

A sum of yen 30,000 has gone astray in the Tokyo branch of the Bank of Japan. Mr Nakayama, Director of the Cashiers' Department, and some other officers in the Bank, have been placed on the retired list on account of this incident.

The King and the 'Victory.'
An official order has been promulgated intimating that, by the King's command, all men at Portsmouth Naval Barracks are to wear the Victory's name on their caps. Hitherto the men have worn the name of Fire Queen, the Port Admiral's yacht. The new order has been given with a view of keeping the Victory as prominent as possible.

Concert at St. Patrick's Club.
At the St. Patrick's Hall last night a complimentary farewell concert was tendered to Mr W. T. Burgess and Mr W. F. Rogers by the St. Patrick's Club. There was a large attendance of Club members and their friends, and a programme of interesting items was provided. Most of the vocal items were very well received and a highly successful entertainment was given.

Cablegram to Mr Chamberlain.
The following is the copy of the cablegram despatched by the Committee of the Hongkong branch of the China Association yesterday to Mr Joseph Chamberlain:—'Large majority of members Hongkong Branch China Association warmly support your fiscal aims. Consider reciprocal treaties absolutely necessary, filling which recommend adoption retaliation.' We understand that only two members of the committee voted against the despatch of the message.

Queen Victoria and the Phonograph.
Our London correspondent writes:—H.M. the King has approved the promotion of Sir John Harrington, K.C.M.G., Agent in Abyssinia, to the rank of a Minister Plenipotentiary at the court of the Emperor Menelik. Apropos of this notification an anecdote is worth recalling. Queen Victoria once spoke into a phonograph. This was a friendly greeting to the Negus, and her express stipulation was that the record should be destroyed as soon as the message had been delivered. Sir John Harrington produced the phonograph before Menelik, and, in spite of the demand of the gratified emperor for the precious record, insisted on scrupulously obeying his orders, and stamped the cylinder to fragments as soon as he had left the tent.

Chinese Labour for South Africa.
Writing on the question of Chinese labour for South Africa our London correspondent says:—The Transvaal has a little Cabinet crisis all of its own. Mr Wybergh, the Commissioner of Mines, is strongly opposed to the employment of Chinese labour, and has resigned in order that he may denounce it, unmuzzled by ministerial responsibility. Meanwhile the Cabinet, like Mr. Fox, keeps on lying low and keeps on saying nuffin. One of the wildest yams of the week is that the Chinese government have resolved to prohibit the export of labourers to South Africa. This is only a forcible expression of the well-known fact that a plentiful application of palm oil will be necessary both in Peking and in Kwangtung to lubricate the machinery if any large emigration is engineered.

He was such a little nipper that the ladies had no idea he was a midshipman at all, but took him for somebody's 'dear little boy,' and seven and elevenpenny. 'Royal Navy all right.'—At last one of them, on whom he had been sitting, and who had just kissed him, asked:—'And how did it go, little dear?' 'Twenty-two, please,' he said, in a voice like a foghorn.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Football.
The V.R.C.F.C. will play the Royal Artillery at 4 p.m. on Saturday, the 16th inst., at Causeway Bay. The following will represent the V.R.C.F.C.:—Forwards, H. W. Sayer, H. T. Holmes, Another, A. Marti, J. Clelland; half backs, E. R. Horton, J. Forbes, H. Gidley; backs, J. Widdell, R. Lapsley; Goal, W. A. Crane.

Curing Malignant Diseases.
Our London correspondent, writing on December 11, says that Mr. Marritt, F.R.S., gave the Bradshaw lecture to the Royal College of Surgeons, taking Cancer as a subject. His conclusions were mainly negative. 'There is no microbe, no protozoan, no bacterium, no fungus and no contagion. He points to its curability by surgical means, cutting the growth entirely out before it is too deeply established, or perhaps entering it with radium. The twentieth century probably has in store for our children the abolition of both cancer and consumption, and any scheme towards these ends has at least as imperative a claim on public funds as the task of smashing the Mullah. Yet this week, Battersea borough council has been surcharged by the Local Government Board, for the expenditure on a sterilised milk depot which has reduced the borough's infant mortality from one in five to one in seven. If such spending is illegal, it is to be hoped that legislation will soon legalise it.

Dammi g the Thames.
Prominent among the interesting schemes to be laid before Parliament when it reassembles on Feb. 2, is the treatment of the Thames, says our London Correspondent. The Government have their bill, the Dock Companies have theirs, and a couple of engineers (Messrs Casey and Barber) have their own stupendous proposal. They say:—'Dam the Thames! The idea is to close the river between Tilbury and Gravesend with a dam like the one at Assouan, checking the tides at that point and converting the forty miles from Tilbury to Teddington into a long lake, on which the largest steamers could come up to London Bridge at any hour of day or night, securing a minimum depth of 30 feet without dredging. The design provides four lock gates, a road along the dam, and a tunnel beneath it, and the cost is estimated at from four to five millions. If the exclusion of the tides should make the river stagnant throughout the length of the village, other people will repeat the suggestion of the engineers, with a difference.

Solicitors Admitted.
At the Supreme Court to-day, Mr H. E. Pollock, K.C., made an application to the Chief Justice (Sir Wm. Goodman) for the admission of Mr Otto Kong Sing as an Attorney and Proctor. Mr Otto Kong Sing had been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of England. Mr E. H. Sharp, K.C., applied for the admission of Mr Dudley Vaughan Stevenson, who had been admitted to the Supreme Court, England, in July, 1902; and for the admission of Mr Arthur Conrad Holborow, who had been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court, England, in November last. The two latter gentlemen were to join the firm of Messrs Deacon, Looker and Deacon, and were approved of subject to a further affidavit of identity being filed. Mr Otto Kong Sing was admitted without reservation. After admitting them to practice the Chief Justice said:—'With regard to these gentlemen admitted to-day, I feel confident, having regard to the papers I read, that you will worthily maintain the reputation and dignity of the profession to which you belong. I wish you success in your practice.'

An Ex-Cobdenite Speaks Out.
Mr Alfred Gilbey, of Woodburn House, Buckinghamshire, formerly Liberal candidate for South Buckinghamshire, who joined the Unionist Party at the last General Election, has written as follows to the Political Agent of the South Buckinghamshire Conservative Association in reference to the Fiscal Question:—'For many years I was a member of the Cobden Club. One of the chief objects of that Club was to convert other nations to the policy of Free Trade. At our annual dinners we were often addressed by foreign gentlemen, who encouraged us in the belief that their respective countries were slowly but surely coming to our way of thinking. I begin to think now that they were simply sent over to 'bid' us on in our Free Trade policy, for after all these years we have failed to make a single convert, and people like myself, who are not bound by any party ties, are beginning to doubt the one-sided Free Trade, for whilst our own exports are decreasing, the trade of Germany, France, and America is steadily advancing. Mr Chamberlain's proposals appeal to me as a business man, and I intend to give him my humble support.'

Baby Cough Must Never Linger.
NOTHING is more distressing than to see a helpless little infant suffering with a cough and to be fearful of using a remedy which may contain some harmful ingredient. The makers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy positively guarantee that this preparation does not contain a grain of opium, or any other harmful substance in any form, or any other harmful substance. Mothers may confidently give this remedy to their little ones. It gives prompt relief and is perfectly safe. It always cures, and cures quickly. TELEGRAMS.

['CHINA MAIL'S' EXCLUSIVE SERVICE.]
SUPPLIED BY REUTERS, &C. BOEYDAY.

THE WAR CLOUD.

A SIGNIFICANT SPEECH BY MR BALFOUR.
Treaty Obligations Will be Carried Out.

LONDON, January 13.
Mr A. J. Balfour, Prime Minister, during an address at Manchester, said that he declined to speak on the chances of either peace or war in the Far East. None, added Mr Balfour, contemplates the possibility of hostilities between two great civilised nations without misgivings and depression. He hoped, however, that it was unnecessary for him to say that Great Britain would fully carry out all her treaty obligations with regard to any of her allies.

The Feeling in London.
(From Our Own Correspondent).
LONDON, December 11.

We are still nervously awaiting fresh developments in the Korean question. The day's telegrams are specific in promise, but they seem 'Made in St. Petersburg.' As a war is threatening also between the United States and Colombia, i.e. military operations which do not require the assent of Congress as a declaration of war would. The white man's burden is becoming daily heavier East and West, while in the Middle East, Britain has her own expedition to Tibet. At the same time, with wars, rumours of wars, ill news, fiscalities, weather (the last week's record here is, fog, fog, rain, rain, rain, and fog) London is a depressing place even though Christmas is coming on imperceptibly.

Russia's attitude in the Far East is amusing, and the general course of Russian foreign movement is a five act farce somewhat as follows:—Act I. Troops are poured into Mankesbair and seize the place. Act II. Protests are received and Russia explains that nothing whatever has happened. Act III. Procrustean treaties are engrossed and playful promises made, in order to throw dust in the bird's eyes if Russia has failed to put salt on the bird's tail. Act IV. Some local disturbances give Russia the excuse to pour in more troops for police purposes. Act V. The annexation is proclaimed, and Russia really thought that everybody knew all about it long ago! This is the game that will go on till the aggressor knocks up against something a little harder than himself.

Russians Mobilising.
A London telegram to the Osaka Mainichi dated Dec. 31, says that it is reported from Russia that a first contingent, numbering 1,000 of the troops now being mobilised at Nigul Novogrod will shortly leave for the Far East. The Manchurian correspondent of the Daily Mail states that the volunteer at Nideoff cruises Kazan and Eskaterinodar have been recalled to the Black Sea, it being feared that they might be captured en route for the Mediterranean. The Kazan was to carry two thousand troops for the Far East. The National Zeitung states that Russia is withdrawing the railway troops from the Warsaw frontier and sending them to Manchuria.

Fight Russia Single Handed.
A Nichi Nishi telegram from Peking says that a certain Chinese high official states that China has been urged by Japan to assume strict neutrality in case hostilities break out between Japan and Russia, and that it is therefore believed that Japan will fight Russia single-handed. Russia has also proposed to China, that the latter should assume a neutral attitude in case of war and has guaranteed the preservation of the Chinese Empire. Most of the leading officials in the Chinese court do not believe in the bona fides of the Russian proposal.

Protest Against Open Ports.
The Russian Minister to Peking addressed a note to the Chinese Government to-day, opposing the certain opening of three places in Manchuria, says a telegram to the Mainichi from Peking on Jan. 2. Prince Ching replied promptly that the opening of these places has been granted to America and Japan by Treaty, and that China was therefore unable to prevent it. The Russian Minister is believed to be attempting to secure some privilege as a set-off for the opening of these places.

A Success (?) for Japan.
There are many rumours current in regard to Russia's and Japan's movements in Corea, says a Berlin wire to the Der Ostasiatische Lloyd, dated Jan. 7. The European Press does not expect from these movements any danger of war so long as Russia will not really attack Japan in South Corea, or if she attacks Russia in Manchuria. According to the statement of the representatives of both Powers such a step is not probable. The final occupation of South Corea by Japan, is considered here a great success for Japan and is, as it was foreboded, by the whole German Press, heartily welcomed.
